92.	Koenigsbrueck	Large fuel storage facilities in Koenigsbrueck. Medium to large size fuel dump (capacity probably more than 265,000 gals) NE of Koenigsbrueck. Four underground storage tanks for gasoline. Two fuel dumps in maneuver area; one having capacity of 43,000 gallons, the other capacity of 54,000 gallons. Large underground ammunition dump (probable location "Neuma Lager," N of town) contains ammo for use in training area.
93.	Dresden	Large, multi-purpose depot on N part of Koenigsbrueckerstrasse for all classes of army supplies—rations, ame, clothing, motor vehicle spare parts and small arms. Supply distribution point. Three-fold spur track. Depot confirmed. Great activity in depot reported June-July 1950. Ammo dump S of Alter Post Weg, SW of Nickernstrasse. Many large warehouses stored with infantry ame, hand grenades, mortar ame, mines, (AT-type), and other klnis. Large fuel depot (1,320,000 gals minimum capacity) consisting of 14 large tanks, secured by concrete walls, between Hamburgerstrasse and Albert Canal. At least 6 underground tanks, and drum storage. Double track spur. Strongly guarded. Two additional depots for civil use totalling 680,000 gals. Confirmed.
94.	Altenburg	Large fuel dump in "Forest Leina" in bunkers (capacity 4,000-5,000 gallons) and in drums. Underground dump tanks (each approx. 131 x 164 x 10 ft) for storage of gasoline and Diesel oil located in N edge of airfield. Bassag Plant used as warehouse for military supplies contains large amounts of ammunition ranging from small-arms to medium-sized artillery shells. Artillery ammunition dump located 875 yds N of Altenburg on Altenburg-Windischleuba road consists of 14 bunkers. Reported fully stocked in 1949. Guarded. Four watchtowers.
95.	Naumburg	Ordnance (local artillery) dump in Roppenhoefstrasse. Damaged during war. Only three buildings. Small ammunition factory and dump on Bahnhofstrasse.
96.	Camburg	Medium size ammunition dump in woods S of town.
97.	Apolda	Ammunition depot in Schoetenergrund SE of town between Apolda and Schoesten, 875 yds E of road leading to Jena. Reportedly 15-20 ground tunnels of 10-33 ft length. Primarily infantry and artillery ame storage. Possibly reserve supply point. No spur. Strictly guarded.
